More answers to recent questions:

“What are some of your favorite garden-related books and why?”

Flowering Plants in the Landscape – Mildred E. Mathias, editor (University of California Press, 1985).
My all-time favorite book that I have been enjoying for over 20 years.

Landscape Plants for Western Regions: An Illustrated Guide to Plants for Water Conservation – Bob Perry (Land Design Publishing, 1992).
Another favorite book.

Only a year old, in a small odd-shaped parcel next to a Gold Line stop in South Pasadena. Whoever is the buyer knows plants because I found some interesting things there.
